

Leave a gift in your will

Your will is a lasting gift to your loved ones and to the next generation. Making a will is a very personal matter. After you have provided for your loved ones, you may consider including YHA Travel to Learn as a beneficiary. In doing so, you'll be helping us develop socially, culturally and environmentally conscious young people who can be changemakers in their communities.

A gift to YHA Travel to Learn in your will is a meaningful way to support a cause that is important to you and the community. If you choose to leave a gift to YHA Travel to Learn, you can be assured that any amount - large or small - will make a valuable difference by enabling young people to travel and experience broader environments, cultures and opportunities that would otherwise not be available to them.

Some of the ways your gift can help:

- Removing barriers to travel
- Empowering career pathways
- Forging reciprocal benefit through social enterprise

A few words in your will can provide travel opportunities for young people to grow personally, professionally, and as a citizen of the world.

How to include a gift in your Will

Every gift, no matter the size, is deeply appreciated and helps us achieve our vision.

Gifts left to charities in wills come in all shapes and sizes, and giving a gift in your will is not just for wealthy people – it is for anybody thinking about doing something powerful, special and lasting.

Making or updating a will is simple. The best way to arrange leaving a gift to YHA Travel to Learn is to speak with a solicitor. They can ensure your estate is distributed in a way that meets your wishes. How you choose to leave a bequest depends on your personal preference and circumstances.

Please make sure that they include our correct legal name (YHA Travel to Learn Limited), address [11-23 Rawson Place, Haymarket NSW 2000] and our ABN [67 637 135 990].
